Special Note: Honda and Acura Vehicles. You must find your color plate and look at the letter in the lower right hand corner. This code is the factory code and is part of the paint color. When ordering touch-up paint you will need to give this code in order to get the correct color. If you can't find the Factory code on the tag you can also get the code from the VIN number. It will be listed as the 11th character in the VIN.
